Commencement:

In exercise of the powers conferred upon it by Section 70 of the Nigerian Communications Act 2003 and all other enabling powers in that behalf, the Commission hereby makes the following Regulations:

Chapter I – Scope and Introductory Provisions

1. With effect from the Commencement Date of this Regulations the Commission shall exercise its monitoring and enforcement powers in accordance with the provisions of the Act and this Regulations.

2. The Commission shall pursuant to the Act and this Regulations monitor and enforce compliance by all persons who are subject to the Act with –

   (a) The provisions of the Act and Regulations;

   (b) Specific Directions of the Commission pursuant to the Act, Regulations or any License Condition; and

   (c) License Conditions particularly but not limited to where there are no specific monitoring and enforcement provisions in the relevant provisions of the Act, Regulations or License Condition.

3. –(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the Commission shall exercise its monitoring and enforcement powers –

   (a) On its own initiative; or

   (b) In response to a written enforcement report made by a person in the form or substantially in the form specified in Form A1 in Schedule 1 to this Regulations.
(2) Prior to exercising its monitoring and enforcement powers pursuant to any enforcement report made by a person under subsection (1)(b) of this Section, the Commission shall first satisfy itself in the manner and on the issues specified in Section 62(2) of the Act.

(3) The Commission shall promptly respond to enforcement reports made by persons pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this Section, in the form or substantially in the form specified in Form A2 in Schedule 1 to this Regulations.

(4) The Commission shall publish on a quarterly basis on its website the details of its monitoring and enforcement activities pursuant to subsection (1) of this section. Such publication shall include sufficient details on the actions taken by the Commission in regard to enforcement reports made by persons pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section.

Chapter II – Monitoring and Enforcement
Powers and Procedures Generally

4. In carrying out its monitoring and enforcement duties and all other functions ancillary thereto the Commission –

(a) Shall at all times be guided by the following principles and considerations, subject however to specific monitoring and enforcement provisions contained in the Act, Regulations and Licenses –

(i) Transparency, fairness and non-discrimination;

(ii) The need to provide modern, qualitative, affordable and readily available communications services in all parts of Nigeria;

(iii) The need to promote fair competition and investment in the communications industry;
(iv) Proportionality of the enforcement sanctions with the contravention taking into account the factors specified in Section 15(2) of this Regulations;

(v) Such other principles and considerations as the Commission may from time to time consider necessary and in the national interest.

(b) Shall exercise and rely and found upon relevant provisions of the Act and, in particular but without any limitation whatsoever, the provisions on its powers, processes and procedures and all other matters ancillary thereto and

(c) May issue directions in writing to any person; and

(d) May enlist and rely on the assistance of law enforcement agencies and other relevant departments, ministries and agencies of the Federal Government of Nigeria.

5. Without prejudice to the specific provisions of the Act, Regulations or any License Condition, the Commission may, in the exercise of its enforcement powers pursuant to this Regulations and the Act, institute civil proceedings in Court against any person for remedies that may include injunctive relief, recovery of administrative fines, specific performance or pecuniary awards or damages.

6. –(1) In exercising the powers of entry and investigation pursuant to Section 141 of the Act, the Commission, through its authorised officials or appointed inspectors –

(a) May demand the testing or operation or use howsoever of any radio communication station or apparatus or other communications equipment or facilities by the person in whose custody the equipment or facilities are; and

(b) May, subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, seal off or seize and detain in the Commission’s custody for such periods and on such terms as the Commission considers necessary to carry out and conclude the relevant monitoring and enforcement procedure:

(i) any such radio communication station or apparatus or other communications equipment or facilities;

(ii) any building or premises; or

(iii) any book, record, document or other information storage system.

(2) The Commission may seize and detain or seal off any building or premises or any of the items specified in subsection (1) of this section in the following circumstances –

(a) Where such constitute part of an unlawful or unauthorised operation; or

(b) Where such is relevant and required for the prosecution in court of a person under the Act or Regulations; or

(c) It is in the national interest to so seize and detain or seal off the building or premises or any of the aforementioned items; or

(d) Such other circumstances that are expressly provided for under the Act.

(3) In seizing and detaining or sealing off any building or premises or any of the items specified in subsection (1) of this section pursuant to the Act or Regulations, the Commission shall –

(a) Obtain a warrant from a Magistrate or Judge.

(b) Provide to the owner or his agent a written inventory in evidence of the seizure of the seized equipment, facility, book, record, document or other information storage system provided that there shall be no need for the issuance of such receipt where the item is sealed off but remains in the custody of the owner or his agent.

7. – (1) In exercising its powers pursuant to Section 141 of the Act, the Commission may issue letters of authority to its officials or appointed inspectors in the form or substantially in the form specified in Form B in Schedule 1 to this Regulations.

(2) Any person who assaults, obstructs or resists or aids any other person to assault, obstruct or resist any official or appointed inspector of the Commission in the performance of his duties shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding N100,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Any person who impersonates any official or appointed inspector of the Commission shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding N100,000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year or to both such fine and imprisonment.

8. – (1) A Licensee shall provide any basic information that may be required by any relevant authority, pursuant to and in the context of Section 146 of the Act, upon presentation to the Licensee of a written request therefor from the relevant authority (without any more), duly signed by an officer of the Nigerian Police not below the substantive rank of Assistant Commissioner of Police or its equivalent in any of the relevant authorities.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) of this section, a Licensee shall provide such non-basic information as may be required by any relevant authority, pursuant to and in the context of Section 146 of the Act, upon the presentation to the Licensee by the relevant authority of the sanction therefor by a Judge or Magistrate in the form or substantially in the form specified in Form C1 in Schedule 1 to this Regulations.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply to the Commission in regard to the exercise of its powers under and pursuant to Section 146 of the Act.

Chapter III – Consumer Affairs and Technical Regulations

9. –(1) The Commission may from time to time, for the purposes of protecting consumers and ensuring ethical marketing and promotional standards by Licensees, publish guidelines specifying inter alia minimum standards and requirements in respect of advertisements and promotions of products and services by Licensees.

(2) Licensees shall obtain the prior written approval of the Commission in respect of the contents and representations contained in any promotion of products or services whatsoever and howsoever. The failure to obtain such required approval shall constitute a contravention under and pursuant to this Regulations.

(3) The Commission shall cause the approval or otherwise of the content and representations of promotional products or services to be communicated to the operator within one week of the date of the request for approval.

10. In carrying out its type approval functions pursuant to Section 132 of the Act, the Commission shall from time to time determine and publish its processes and procedures.

11. Where Licenses are issued based on assigned bands of frequencies and operating geographical regions, either in accordance with State boundaries or other such boundaries as may be delineated by the Commission and specified from time to time or in the License, the Licensee must ensure that the strength of radio signals from his network emitting into adjacent or other Licensee’s regions or frequency bands are not such as to cause harmful interference in such regions or frequency bands.

12. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, Regulations or any License Condition, the following acts or conducts by any licensee or person shall constitute contravention pursuant to and under this Regulations:

(a) Occasioning harmful interference in the context of Section 11 of this Regulations;

(b) Breach or violation howsoever of the guidelines and standards that may be specified and published by the Commission in respect of advertisements and promotions of products and services by Licensees pursuant to Section 9(1) of this Regulations;

(c) Failure to meet such power limits as the Commission may from time to time specify and publish pursuant to Section B0 of the Act in respect of the radio frequency power output of any transmitting device;

(d) Failure to fulfil and/or satisfy howsoever the type approval provisions and requirements in the Act, Regulations or License;

13. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, Regulations or any License Condition, the failure by any Licensee to meet such minimum standards of quality of service as the Commission may from time to time specify and publish pursuant to Section 104 of the Act shall constitute contravention pursuant to and under this Regulations.

14. Without prejudice to such other enforcement measures as are or may be contained in the Act, Regulations or any License Condition, contravention of the provisions contained in Sections 9, 12 and 13 of this Regulations shall attract the administrative sanctions specified in Schedule 2 to this Regulations.

Chapter IV – Administrative Fines

15. (1) Without prejudice to the specific enforcement provisions contained in the Act, Regulations or relevant License, the Commission may at its discretion but subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section impose administrative fines for enforcement purposes, pursuant to the Act and this Regulations, particularly but not limited to instances where specific enforcement sanctions have not been provided for in the Act, Regulations or License.

(2) In imposing administrative fines as sanctions the Commission shall be guided generally by the following factors and considerations –

(a) The severity of the contravention and the need to impose such fine or the amount thereof as would act as deterrent both to the contravening person and other persons;

(b) The need to be non-discriminatory and transparent in the imposition of sanctions generally and particularly but not limited to sanctions on different persons for similar offences committed in identical circumstances;

(c) The prevalence of the contravention in the industry generally and the likelihood of repetition by the contravening person and other persons;

(d) The duration of the contravention;

(e) The circumstances of the contravention and in particular but not limited to a consideration of whether or not the contravention was deliberately or recklessly or negligently committed by the contravening person;

(f) Record of previous similar contravention by the contravening person;

(g) Record of previous contraventions generally by the contravening
person;

(h) Attitude and conduct of the contravening person prior to and leading up to the act of contravention and consequent upon the contravention;

(i) Danger to life and property consequent upon the contravention;

(j) Effect of contravention on relevant service provision generally;

(k) Any gain (financial or otherwise) made by the contravening person directly or indirectly consequent upon the contravention;

(l) The degree of harm caused or increased cost incurred by Consumers or other Communications Sector participants;

(m) Size and annual turnover of the contravening person;

(n) The extent to which any contravention was caused by a third party or any relevant circumstances beyond the control of the contravening person;

(o) The absence, ineffectiveness or repeated failure of internal mechanisms or procedures intended to prevent contravention by the contravening person;

(p) Possible mitigating circumstances such as but not limited to –

(i) Whether or not the contravention was of a minor nature and the consequences and effect thereof were equally minor in nature;

(ii) Whether the contravening person took immediate steps to remedy the contravention soon after knowing of the contravention;

(q) Such other factors as the Commission may in specific circumstances consider relevant and necessary.
(3) The Commission shall be guided in determining the specific administrative fine amount payable by a contravening person by the factors and considerations specified in subsection (2) of this Section.

16. –(1) Without derogating from the general provisions of Section 14 and Section 15 of this Regulations, the Commission may impose administrative fines in the amounts specified in Schedule 2 to this Regulations for each occurrence of the contravening acts or conducts of licensees or calculate such fines in the manner specified in the said Schedule 2.

(2) Any administrative fine imposed by the Commission pursuant to the Act, Regulations or License shall become due and payable by the contravening person within 14 (fourteen) days from the date of the receipt of the notification document issued by the Commission to the contravening person therefor.

(3) Payment of an administrative fine by a contravening person shall be without prejudice to the Commission’s power to impose any other enforcement sanctions under the Act, Regulations or Licence.

Chapter V – Determination of License

17. –(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of the Act, Regulations or License Conditions and notwithstanding any contrary provision in any License contained, the Commission may at any time revoke any License by giving 3 (three) months notice in writing to the Licensee in any of the following circumstances:

(a) If the Licensee ceases for a continuous period of 30 (thirty) days at any time after Commercial Launch Date, to provide, in the Licensed Area or any part or location thereof, the Service for which the License was granted;

(b) If any amount payable under any License Condition remains unpaid after it became due and remains unpaid for a period of 21
(twenty one) days after the Commission notifies the Licensee in writing that the payment is due;

(c) If the Licensee fails to ensure that its equipment is type approved by the Commission pursuant to Section 132 of the Act;

(d) If within 12 (twelve) months of the effective date of the License, the Licensee has not commenced full licensed operations to the satisfaction of the Commission provided that the Commission would have given prior notice to the Licensee specifying the details of the default by the Licensee and requiring that remedial steps be taken within 30 (thirty) days of the notice.

(e) If the Licensee makes any statement of a material nature in the course of applying for a License which statement is subsequently established to be false or misleading howsoever.

(2) Without derogating from the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, the Commission may, as an alternative to License revocation pursuant to the Act, Regulations or License but solely at its discretion and wherever applicable,—

(a) Impose the administrative fines stipulated in Schedule 2 to this Regulations in respect of the contraventions specified in the said subsection 1 of this section; or

(b) Require that the Licensee makes such changes in its management as the Commission may consider necessary and within such time as the Commission may specify; or

Provided that where the Commission determines that a License shall be revoked the Commission may also impose the administrative fine as aforesaid.

(3) The License fees that have been paid in respect of a License that has been revoked pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not be refunded.
whether in part or whole consequent upon such revocation.

18. The original copy of any License that has been determined howsoever shall be returned to the Commission by the Licensee within 14 (fourteen) days of the effective date of the License determination.

Chapter VI – Definitions and Short Title

19. –(1) In this Regulations –

“Basic Information” means subscriber account information or details; call data which, in the context of this definition, shall include the data of any communication service subscribed to and/or used by a consumer; and such other information as the Commission may from time to time define and publish as basic information.
