

CPRafrica2011: Young Scholars Seminar
Building ICT research capacity for Africa
Nairobi, Kenya.

April 15-16, 2011

Research ICT Africa in association with the University of Nairobi.

Friday, 15 April 2011
0800-0830	Registration
0830-0900	Introductions & expectations	Tim Waema, PhD (Kenya)
0900-1030	Policy analysis through supply side research	Alison Gillwald, PhD (South Africa)
1030-1100	BREAK
1100-1230	Understanding users through demand side research	Christoph Stork, PhD (Germany/Namibia)
1230-1345	LUNCH
1345-1500	From qualitative information to quantitative analysis	Sujata Gamage PhD (Sri Lanka)
1500-1530	BREAK
1530-1700	Case studies as effective research tools	Laura Recuero Virto (Spain)
19h00 for 19h30 - NETWORKING DINNER
Saturday, 16 April 2011
0830-1030	Communication for policy influence	Rohan Samarajiva (PhD) & Helani Galpaya (Sri Lanka)
1030-1100	BREAK
1100-1230	Preparing a policy brief	Christoph Stork
1230-1345	LUNCH
1345 -1430	Getting selected: Writing abstracts, papers and thesis proposals	Alison Gillwald
1430-1530	Presentation preparation and techniques	Ernesto Flores Roux, PhD (Mexico)
1530-1600	BREAK
1600-1730	Presentation of research ideas/PhD proposals and group discussion by Young Scholars lead by:	Ernesto Flores Roux Alison Gillwald Sujata Gamage Laura Recuero Virto Rohan Samarajiva Christoph Stork Tim Waema

Mpho Moyo mmoyo@researchICTafrica.net will be your teaching assistance on Friday and Enrico Calandro ecalandro@researchICTafrica.net on Saturday. Please let them know in advance of your teaching requirements and any in-class assistance you will require.